ITINERARY

DAY 1  Overnight Flight to China

DAY 2  Welcome to Beijing
Beijing is a vibrant city of old and new with ritzy shopping malls and ancient treasures. After checking into your hotel, get to know the city’s customs and cuisine, before kicking off your tour with a welcome dinner and reception.

DAY 3  Beijing Sightseeing
Begin a guided tour of Beijing in The Forbidden City, home to 24 emperors of the Ming (1368-1644) and Qing (1644-1911) Dynasties, and Tiananmen Square, the world’s largest public square and a symbolic backdrop of China’s modern political history. End the day with an authentic Sichuan dinner and Legends of Kung Fu Show.

DAY 4  Beijing Olympic Sports Complex
Explore Beijing’s Bird’s Nest Olympic Stadium, situated in the Olympic Green Village. Participate in a Taiji lesson and enjoy a traditional Chinese tea ceremony. Experience a richshaw tour through Hutong (Old Beijing) before indulging in a Beijing duck dinner.

DAY 5  Great Wall of China
Witness the Great Wall of China, one of the country’s engineering triumphs and the most famed wonder of the world. Visit the Sacred Way, and watch a football practice before enjoying a Hotpot dinner.

DAY 6  Shanghai Sightseeing
After an early breakfast, travel to Shanghai via high-speed train to experience China’s largest city. After checking into your hotel, enjoy dinner and an acrobatics show.

DAY 7  Gameday in Shanghai
Watch a youth clinic and savor a pre-game meal before facing your Chinese competitors on the field for an international football game. Afterward, enjoy a post-game social activity and dinner.

DAY 8  Shanghai
Begin at the Jade Buddha Temple, one of the few active Buddhist monasteries built between 1918 and 1928, then explore the Yu Yuan Gardens, one of Shanghai’s premier garden sights with shaded alcoves and spring flowers. Before heading back to the USA, enjoy a Farewell Dinner and Huangpu river cruise.
